COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, PEDRO DIJOLS, as candidate for Broward County Judge Circuit Group 3, pursuant to § 102.168, Fla. Stat., and Florida common law, files this action to remove Defendant, MARDI ANNE LEVEY a/k/a MARDI LEVEY COHEN, from the Broward County Judge Circuit Group 3 election ballot and states:

Relief Sought and Jurisdiction

1. This is an action which seeks to remove and disqualify Defendant, MARDI ANNE LEVEY a/k/a MARDI LEVEY COHEN, as a candidate from the election ballot in Broward County Judge Circuit Group 3 pursuant to § 102.168, Fla. Stat. (2008).
2. Jurisdiction is appropriate in the circuit court pursuant to § 26.012 and § 102.168, Fla. Stat. (2008), Article V Section 5(b) of the Florida Constitution and Rule 9.030(c)(3) of the Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure.

3. Venue is proper in Broward County, Florida, pursuant to § 47.011, Fla. Stat. (2008) because the cause of action arose in Broward County, Florida.

Parties

4. Plaintiff, PEDRO DIJOLS, was a candidate for Circuit Judge in Broward County, seeking election in Circuit Group 3.

5. Defendant, MARDI ANNE LEVEY a/k/a MARDI LEVEY COHEN, is a Candidate for Circuit Judge in Broward County, seeking also election in Circuit Group 3.

6. Defendant, DR. BRENDA C. SNIPES ("DR. SNIPES"), is the Supervisor of Elections for Broward County, Florida. DR. SNIPES is responsible for the conduct of elections in Broward County and for carrying out applicable provisions of the Florida Election Code (Chapters 97 through 106, Florida Statutes).

7. Defendant, BROWARD COUNTY CANVASSING BOARD, is responsible for certifying election results and conducting statutorily mandated recounts and is an indispensable party to this action pursuant to § 102.168, Fla. Stat. (2008).

8. Defendant, BERNARD ISAAC BOBER, is a candidate for Circuit Judge in Broward County, also seeking election in Circuit Group 3, and as a "successful candidate" in the August, 2008 primary, is an "indispensable party" to this action pursuant to Section 102.168, Fla. Stat. (2008).

Events Giving Rise to this Action

9. In 2005, PEDRO DIJOLS, after a distinguished career as a statewide prosecuting attorney and state attorney, was appointed to the Circuit Bench of the 17th Judicial Circuit Court, by then Governor Jeb Bush and has been serving since his appointment in 2005.

10. Under the Florida Constitution, PEDRO DIJOLS, as an appointed judge, was required to run for re-election.

11. Two candidates elected to enter the race and challenge PEDRO DIJOLS: BERNARD ISAAC BOBER, a Broward County Public Defender; and MARDI ANNE LEVEY, an attorney who practices law under the name "Mardi Levey Cohen" and/or "Mardi L. Cohen."

MARDI ANNE LEVEY Failed to Run Under the Name
by Which She Conducts Private and Official Business

12. Under Florida election law, a candidate is required to run under the name by which he or she transacts private and official business. See Planas v. Planas, 937 So. 2d 745 (Fla. 3d DCA 2006), citing Division of Election Opinion 86-06 and C.J.S. Elections § 161. MARDI ANNE LEVEY has willfully failed to abide by this requirement, and is in violation of Florida election law.

13. MARDI ANNE LEVEY conducts both her private affairs and official business under the name, "Mardi Levey Cohen" and/or "Mardi L. Cohen."

14. MARDI ANNE LEVEY worked at the State Attorney's Office from 2002 through 2006. While working at the State Attorney's office, MARDI ANNE LEVEY transacted business as "Mardi L. Cohen." Copies of her Resume, Employment Application, Commitment to Employ, Oath of Loyalty, and Letter of Resignation are attached hereto as composite Exhibit "A."

15. Moreover, copies of her W2 forms for the years 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2006, attached hereto as composite Exhibit "B," conclusively demonstrate that MARDI ANNE LEVEY transacted her private affairs and official business as "Mardi L. Cohen."

16. After leaving the State Attorney's Office, MARDI ANNE LEVEY went into private practice, practicing as "Mardi L. Cohen," and naming her firm "Law Office of Mardi L. Cohen, P.A." A print out of her firm's website and its 2008 Annual Report is attached hereto as composite Exhibit "C."

17. MARDI ANNE LEVEY's social security card, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "D," reads "Mardi L. Cohen."

18. In 2006, COHEN ran unsuccessfully for Circuit Court Judge under the name "Mardi Levey Cohen." A print out of the 2006 Candidate Tracking System and a copy of a mailing from her unsuccessful 2006 campaign are attached as composite Exhibit "E."

19. Computer searches of websites such as Google, Yahoo, Broward County Public Records, and State of Florida-Official Records provide no indication that MARDI ANNE LEVEY has used her maiden name, "Levey," since her marriage to her husband Judge Dale Cohen over twenty years ago.

20. MARDI ANNE LEVEY did not file a petition to change her name prior to entering the race for the Group 3 judicial seat. A copy of the Certificate of the Clerk verifying this information is attached as Exhibit "F."

21. In the current issue of the Florida Bar Journal, as well as on the Florida Bar Website, the name MARDI ANNE LEVEY is not listed. Copies from the Florida Bar Journal, the Florida Bar Website, and her Florida Bar membership card are attached as composite Exhibit "G." Mardi Levey Cohen is listed in the Florida Bar Journal at the address used by MARDI ANNE LEVEY for this election. See Exhibit "H".

22. Notwithstanding the fact that MARDI ANNE LEVEY conducted her private affairs and official business as "Mardi L. Cohen" or "Mardi Levey Cohen" for over twenty years, she appeared on the August 2008 ballot as "MARDI ANNE LEVEY," as demonstrated on the print out of the 2008 Candidate Tracking System, attached hereto as Exhibit "H."

23. The candidate has a valid Florida driver's license under the name of Mardi Levey Cohen as evidenced by the printout from the State of Florida – Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles attached hereto as Exhibit "I".

Procedure Regarding Recount of August 2008 Election Results

24. After the initial election results, BERNARD ISAAC BOBER came in first, receiving approximately 38% of the votes. The race for second, however, was extremely close. PEDRO DIJOLS and MARDI ANNE LEVEY both received approximately 30% of the votes. The "unofficial" vote count revealed that only 111 votes separated the two candidates.

25. Because the 111 vote difference between PEDRO DIJOLS and MARDI ANNE LEVEY resulted in a victory of less than ½ of 1%, a mandatory recount was conducted in accordance with § 102.141(7), Fla. Stat. on Saturday, August 30, 2008.

26. The results of the mandatory recount on Saturday August 30, 2008 dictated that a manual recount be performed in accordance with § 106.166(1), Fla. Stat. on Sunday, August 31, 2008.

27. Section 102.166(5)(a), Fla. Stat., provides the procedures by which the county canvassing board and parties must follow during the manual recount process. Under the statute, the county canvassing board appoints counting teams of at least two electors who are joined by the candidates' representatives. In addition, the statute prohibits a candidate from being a member of the counting team. The Code of Judicial Conduct prohibits a sitting judge from endorsing any candidate. Canon 7 (A)(1)(b) of the Code of Judicial Conduct.

Impropriety Surrounding the Recount

28. MARDI ANN LEVEY attended the first stage of the recount at the Broward County Supervisor of Election's Office. She did not record her appearance as MARDI ANNE LEVEY. Instead, on the sign-in sheet, she recorded her appearance under the name "Mardi Cohen," but identified herself as "candidate." A copy of the August 30, 2008, sign-in sheet is attached as Exhibit "J."

29. The candidate on the ballot, however, was "Mardi Anne Levey," not "Mardi Cohen." The candidate's confusion regarding her own name is highly indicative of the confusion among the voters of Broward County as to who was actually running for the Group 3 judicial seat.

30. MARDI ANNE LEVEY'S husband, Dale Cohen, a circuit court judge in Broward County, joined her and recorded his appearance on the sign-in sheet as "Judge." See Exhibit "J."

31. On August 31, 2008, MARDI ANNE LEVEY and her husband attended the second stage of the recount proceedings - the manual recount. This time, Judge Dale Cohen, signed in as an "observer." A copy of the August 31, 2008, sign-in sheet is attached as Exhibit "K." MARDI ANNE LEVEY did not list her appearance as "Mardi Cohen" as she did the previous day, but signed in as "Mardi Levey." She did not identify herself as a candidate.

32. During the manual recount proceedings, Judge Dale Cohen improperly participated in the proceedings as an observer for the Defendant, MARDI ANNE LEVEY, a/k/a MARDI L. COHEN, by sitting before the counting team as they reviewed the ballots deemed questionable. Furthermore, he Judge Cohen sat before the canvassing board during their review of contested or questionable ballots. This impropriety was further exacerbated by the fact that two of the three members of the canvassing board reviewing the ballots are colleagues of Judge Dale Cohen as sitting county court judges in the 17th Judicial Circuit and again Judge Cohen acted as the designated observer during the process before the canvassing board.

33. Although not a candidate in the election, as a sitting Broward County circuit court judge, Judge Dale Cohen's participation in the manual recount proceedings was in direct violation of Canon 7 (A)(1)(b) of the Code of Judicial Conduct, which prohibits a sitting judge from publicly endorsing another candidate for office. It is also a violation of Canons 2(A) and 2(B) which require that a judge promote the impartiality of the judiciary and not let familial relationships influence the judge's conduct. There is also a strong indicia of misconduct on the part of the candidate, MARDI ANNE LEVEY, who was present in the public audience while her husband, Judge Cohen, was observing the canvassing board review of contested ballots.

34. Judge Dale Cohen's participation in the recount is not the only instance where MARDI ANNE LEVEY has misused the power of her husband's office for personal gain. "Mardi Levey Cohen" has recently been the subject of a Florida Bar investigation for alleged violations of the Rules Regulating the Florida Bar regarding her inclusion of a picture of her husband, Judge Dale Cohen, in his judicial robe on her firm website in an effort to advertise her law practice. See Report of Minor Misconduct attached hereto as Exhibit "L."

35. This matter is currently pending and undoubtedly prompted MARDI ANNE LEVEY to change her name on the ballot in an effort to avoid public scrutiny.

The Results

36. The manual recount resulted in BERNARD ISAAC BOBER receiving 36,729 votes (38.32%), MARDI ANNE LEVEY receiving 29,599 votes (30.88%) and PEDRO DIJOLS receiving 29,527 votes (30.80%). The canvassing board thereafter certified the election results.

37. Plaintiff, PEDRO DIJOLS, lost the second position and the right to participate in the November run off by 72 votes. In accordance with the Florida Constitution, MARDI ANNE LEVEY is slated to face BERNARD ISAAC BOBER in the general election in November. However, MARDI ANNE LEVEY must be removed from the November ballot due to her intentional violation of Florida election law and her willful deception of the voters of Broward County.

38. MARDI ANNE LEVEY's improper use of her husband's office is also grounds to invalidate the election results. Rather than acting as a neutral, disinterested party, as is required by Canon 7 (A)(1)(b) of the Code of Judicial Conduct, Judge Dale Cohen participated in the manual recount proceedings by acting as an observer during his colleague's screening of "over and under votes" and as an observer on behalf of his wife, Mardi Anne Levey (not Marty Cohen), before the BROWARD COUNTY CANVASSING BOARD.

39. If MARDI ANNE LEVEY was not permitted to be on the ballot due to her violation of election law, or if her actual name, "Mardi Levey Cohen" or "Mardi L. Cohen," was on the ballot, the election results undoubtedly would have been different.

Count I – Violation of § 102.168(b), Fla. Stat.

40. Plaintiff, PEDRO DIJOLS realleges and reavers paragraphs 1 through 39 as though fully set forth herein.

41. Under § 102.168, an election may be contested by an unsuccessful candidate also running for the same position if he or she establishes one or more of the following:

- (a) Misconduct, fraud, or corruption on the part of any election official or any member of the canvassing board sufficient to change or place in doubt the result of the election;
- (b) Ineligibility of the successful candidate for the nomination or office in dispute;
- (c) Receipt of a number of illegal votes or rejection of a number of legal votes sufficient to change or place in doubt the result of the election;
- (d) Proof that any elector, election official, or canvassing board member was given or offered a bribe or reward in money, property, or any other thing of value for the purpose of procuring the successful candidate's nomination or election or determining the result on any question submitted by referendum.

§ 102.168(3)(a)-(b).

42. MARDI ANNE LEVEY engaged in misconduct by appearing on the August ballot as "MARDI ANNE LEVEY" and not as "Mardi Levey Cohen" or "Mardi L. Cohen," which is the name by which she transacts private and official business.

43. MARDI ANNE LEVEY further engaged in misconduct by misusing the office of her husband, Judge Dale Cohen, in having him participate in the statutorily mandated recount conducted on August 30, 2008 and the statutorily mandated manual recount on August 21, 2008, in violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct.

44. Moreover, MARDI ANNE LEVEY was ineligible to run for the Group 3 judicial seat as that is not the name by which she transacts private and official business.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff, PEDRO DIJOLS, respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter an Order:

- A. Finding that Defendant, MARDI ANNE LEVEY, while seeking election in Circuit Group 3, adopted a name by which she has not transacted private and official business;
- B. Finding that Defendant, MARDI ANNE LEVEY, by adopting a name by which she has not transacted private and official business, has not acted in good faith and for honest purposes;
- C. Finding that Defendant, MARDI ANNE LEVEY, is disqualified from candidacy in Circuit Group 3;
- D. Instructing Defendant, DR. BRENDA C. SNIPES, to remove Defendant, MARDI ANNE LEVEY, as a candidate in Circuit Group 3;
- G. Granting such further relief as this Court deems just, reasonable and proper.

Count II – Petition for Writ of Mandamus

45. Petitioner, PEDRO DIJOLS, realleges and reavers paragraphs 1 through 39 as though fully set forth herein.

46. Pursuant to Rule 9.100, PEDRO DIJOLS, respectfully petitions this court for a writ of mandamus (1) compelling DR. SNIPES and/or the BROWARD COUNTY

CANVASSING BOARD to take MARDI ANNE LEVEY off the November 2008 ballot, and (2) compelling the BROWARD COUNTY CANVASSING BOARD to recertify the election and allow PEDRO DIJOLS to participate in the run off against BERNARD ISAAC BOBER in the November election.

47. This court has jurisdiction to issue a writ of mandamus under Article V Section 5(b) of the Florida Constitution and Rule 9.030(c)(3) of the Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure. Mandamus is the proper remedy as (1) the duty to remove MARDI ANNE LEVEY from the November ballot is a ministerial duty; (2) recertification of the election results is also a ministerial duty.

48. The nature of the relief sought by this petition is a writ of mandamus compelling the DR. SNIPES, as the supervisor of elections, and/or the BROWARD COUNTY CANVASSING BOARD, to remove MARDI ANNE LEVEY from the November ballot due to her failure to comply with Florida election law, and further, compelling the BROWARD COUNTY CANVASSING BOARD to recertify the election and awarding PEDRO DIJOLS the second seat enabling him to participate in the November run off.

49. The will of the electorate must be protected, so must the sanctity of the ballot and the integrity of the election. Matter of Protest Election Returns and Absentee, 707 So.2d 1170 (Fla. 3d DCA1998). Courts cannot ignore fraudulent conduct which is purposefully done to foul the election or corrupt the ballot. Id. Because MARDI ANNE LEVEY failed to use the name by which she transacts private and official business in running for the Group 3 judicial seat, she has violated Florida election law and participated with her husband and circuit court judges in violation of the judicial canons. Thus, MARDI ANNE LEVEY should be removed from the November ballot.

WHEREFORE PEDRO DIJOLS seeks a writ of mandamus compelling to DR. BRENDA SNIPES and/or the BROWARD COUNTY CANVASSING BOARD to remove MARDI ANNE LEVEY as a candidate in the Group 3 election in November 2008.

Count III – Action for Declaratory Judgment

50. Defendant, PEDRO DIJOLS realleges and reavers paragraphs 1 through 39 as though fully set forth herein.

51. This is a declaratory action pursuant to §§ 86.011 et seq. There is a bona fide, actual, present practical need for the declaration PEDRO DIJOLS seeks.

52. PEDRO DIJOLS seeks a declaration as to his rights, status, powers, and privileges with respect to the actions of MARDI ANNE LEVEY.

53. Specifically, PEDRO DIJOLS seeks to obtain a declaration from this Court that MARDI ANNE LEVEY is not a properly qualified candidate for the Group 3 judicial seat based on her violation of Florida election law by running under a name by which she does not transact either private or official business

54. The declaration sought pertains to a present, ascertainable state of facts or controversy involving those facts.

55. PEDRO DIJOLS has an actual and present interest in the subject matter of this action as MARDI ANNE LEVEY secured the second and only remaining seat for the for the Group 3 judicial seat election in November 2008. Had MARDI ANNE LEVEY not secured this seat, it would have secured by PEDRO DIJOLS.

56. The parties having an actual or adverse interest in the subject matter of this action are parties herein.

57. PEDRO DIJOLS is in need of a declaration as to whether MARDI ANNE LEVEY violated Florida election laws, and thus his rights, status, immunities, powers and/or privileges relative to the primary election for the Group 3 judicial seat.

58. PEDRO DIJOLS is entitled to have all issues resolved as to his rights, status, immunities, powers, and/or privileges pursuant to Florida election law relative to the Group 3 judicial election.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff PEDRO DIJOLS requests entry of a declaratory judgment that Defendant MARDI ANNE LEVEY is not a properly qualified candidate for the Group 3 election seat, grant a hearing pursuant to Chapter 86 of the Florida Statutes, as well an award of costs and such further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Count II – Petition for Writ of Quo Warranto

59. Petitioner, PEDRO DIJOLS, realleges and reavers paragraphs 1 through 39 as though fully set forth herein.

60. Pursuant to rule 9.100, PEDRO DIJOLS, respectfully petitions the court for a writ of quo warranto directed to the Respondents, DR. BRENDA SNIPES and the BROWARD COUNTY CANVASSING BOARD.

61. This Court has jurisdiction to issue a writ of quo warranto under Article V section 5(b) of the Florida Constitution, and rule 9.030(c)(3) of the Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure. It "is available for the purpose of determining the title or right to a public office and to oust an incumbent who has unlawfully usurped or intruded into the office or is unlawfully holding it." See Maloney v. Kirk, 212 So. 2d 609, 618 (Fla. 1968).

62. Because MARDI ANNE LEVEY has violated election law and has used her husband's office for an improper purpose, she has unlawfully usurped or intruded into the November 2008 run off, and Petitioner, PEDRO DIJOLS, is rightfully entitled to be a candidate in the Group 3 judicial election in November 2008.

63. For these reasons, PEDRO DIJOLS respectfully submits that the court should issue a writ of quo warranto.

WHEREFORE PEDRO DIJOLS seeks a writ of quo warranto removing Respondent, MARDY ANNE LEVEY, as a candidate in the Group 3 election in November 2008.

Mr. Michael J. Satz
State Attorney
Seventeenth Judicial Circuit of Florida
201 S.E. 6th Street
Fort Lauderdale, FL 33301

Dear Mr. Satz,

I am writing to you today to officially tender my resignation from the Broward County State Attorney's Office effective April 30, 2006.

I do so with great sadness as I never thought that I would leave such a great office. Nonetheless, I have reached a crossroads in my life and must take over my husband's private practice due to his appointment to the bench.

I cannot say enough wonderful things about the State Attorney's Office, about the people I have worked with in my years of service to the county, and especially about the professional manner in which you have led this office. Through my experiences at the State Attorney's Office I have gained both personally and professionally and for this I will always be indebted to you and to this office. It is my hope that we will stay in touch as I begin this new chapter in my life.

Sincerely,

Mardi L. Cohen

SIGN-IN SHEET August 31, , 2008

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF FLORIDA
(Before a Grievance Committee)

THE FLORIDA BAR,

Complainant,

v.

TFB File No. 2008-90,161(02S)

MARDI LEVEY COHEN,

Respondent.

REPORT OF MINOR MISCONDUCT

I. Committee Recommendation: Pursuant to Rule 3-7.4(m), the committee recommends that you receive an admonishment. By accepting this admonishment, respondent is required to attend The Florida Bar's advertising workshop within 6 months of acceptance of this report and shall obtain pre-publication review and approval of all future advertisements for 1 year following the recommendation. All future advertisements must be submitted to The Florida Bar Standing Committee on Advertising prior to dissemination and must be approved before dissemination may occur. Administration of the admonishment shall be service of this Report.

II. Summary of the Minor Misconduct: Ms. Cohen published a website for her firm that showed a picture of her husband, who is a judge in the same county in which she practices, dressed in his judicial robes. This picture was displayed as part of rotating photographs immediately under the heading "Law Offices of Mardi L. Cohen, P.A.," giving the distinct impression that the judge was a part of the firm or that respondent's firm had some particular connection with the judiciary. Respondent indicated that her website was for use by existing clients only, was not used to solicit clients, and that her website would not readily appear in a Google search. However, a Google search easily retrieved links to her website, which was misleading in violation of Rule 4-8.4(c) and improperly implied an ability to influence a government official, a member of the judiciary in violation of Rule 4-8.4(e).

III. Recitation of Facts and/or Comment on Mitigating, Aggravating or Evidentiary Matters: Respondent has no prior discipline, but the committee had concerns regarding respondent's answers to the Bar's questions which appeared at odds with information available to the public on her website.
